Help Protect Denver's Water Resources

Be a part of a growing community of concerned residents and businesses who are committed to protecting Denver's precious water resources. Together with Denver Public Works, Environmental Health, and other community partners, we can work together to protect rivers, lakes and streams by promoting healthier disposal of toxic waste from our homes, schools, businesses, and recreation areas.

Things you can do around the house...

- Care for your lawn wisely +
- Pick up litter and pet waste +
- Safely dispose of automotive fluid +
